

בס"ד

Kollel Menachem invites you to An evening for Jewish Lawyers and Accountants with

Rabbi Shlomo Yaffe

Dean of the Institute of American and Talmudic Law in New York, NY.

Topic

Corporate Governance Comparing Jewish and Secular law

A comparative study of Jewish and secular law on the nature of the corporation and its implication for corporate relationships, ethics and considerations*

Monday December 30, 8:00pm – 9:15pm

At the home of Michael and Sylvia Goldhirsch
59 Balaclava Rd, St Kilda East

This seminar is part of the Summer Learning Program. For more information visit www.SummerLearning.com.au

*Issues to be addressed:

- Disclosure, transparency and managing competing interests and legal obligations.
- Historical antecedents
- The nature of the corporation in secular law
- The nature of the corporation in Judaic law - 7 possibilities
- Shareholders, directors and their relationships - Judaic and American law
- Considerations arising from limiting liability in the various systems
- Malfeasance by directors and other responsible parties - paradigms of responsibility
- Ethical and spiritual considerations for change in the accepted structures of corporate law and practice

This event may qualify for CPD Points

To RSVP email Kollel@yeshivahcentre.org